ALLIES LAUNCH OFFENSIVE TO DRIVE AXIS FROM TUNISIA SOVIETS ENGAGED IN FIERCE DEFENSIVE BATTLE IN SOUTH

AFRICA CORPS IS BATTERED FROM THE AIR

Commuque Suggests Possibility Rommel May Be Withdrawing Forces

ITALIAN PRISONERS

By CARL C. CRANMER
Associated Press War Editor
American armored forces were reported within sight of Maknassy, only 52 miles from the coast, and the British Eighth Army was officially declared to be making progress in penetration of the formidable Mareth Line fortifications today in a rapidly unfolding offensive from south and west to smash Marshal Erwin Rommel and drive the Axis from Tunisia.

Striking in unison under a widespread canopy of planes which blasted at forts, gun emplacements and airfields, the Americans and British were driving to destroy the head of the Axis in southern Tunisia and possibly had forced Rommel to begin already the withdrawal of his German divisions.

In the north, however, the British First Army was driven from the Station of Nefsa, 47 miles southwest of Bizerte and only two miles from the vital Allied position of Djebel Abiod, by the intensified operations of German General Jergen von Arnim.

The possibility that Rommel was withdrawing his German divisions was suggested by a German high command communique which said strong British and American forces had attacked "Italian positions" in south and central Tunisia. Heretofore Rommel has always left Italians as his rear guard when beginning a retreat.

Signaling the start of the long-prepared offensive, Allied headquarters announced that Gen. Bernard L. Montgomery's forces were making satisfactory progress in their efforts to penetrate the tough defenses of the Mareth desert line in the south and that American troops in the central Tunisian sector had scored several successes.

Dispatches from the front said American infantry, under an advancing curtain of artillery fire, had crossed "some of the greatest natural military defenses in the world" in a dawn-to-dusk thrust yesterday from El Guettar. This plunge through the hills placed forward elements less than 70 miles from the port of Gabes.

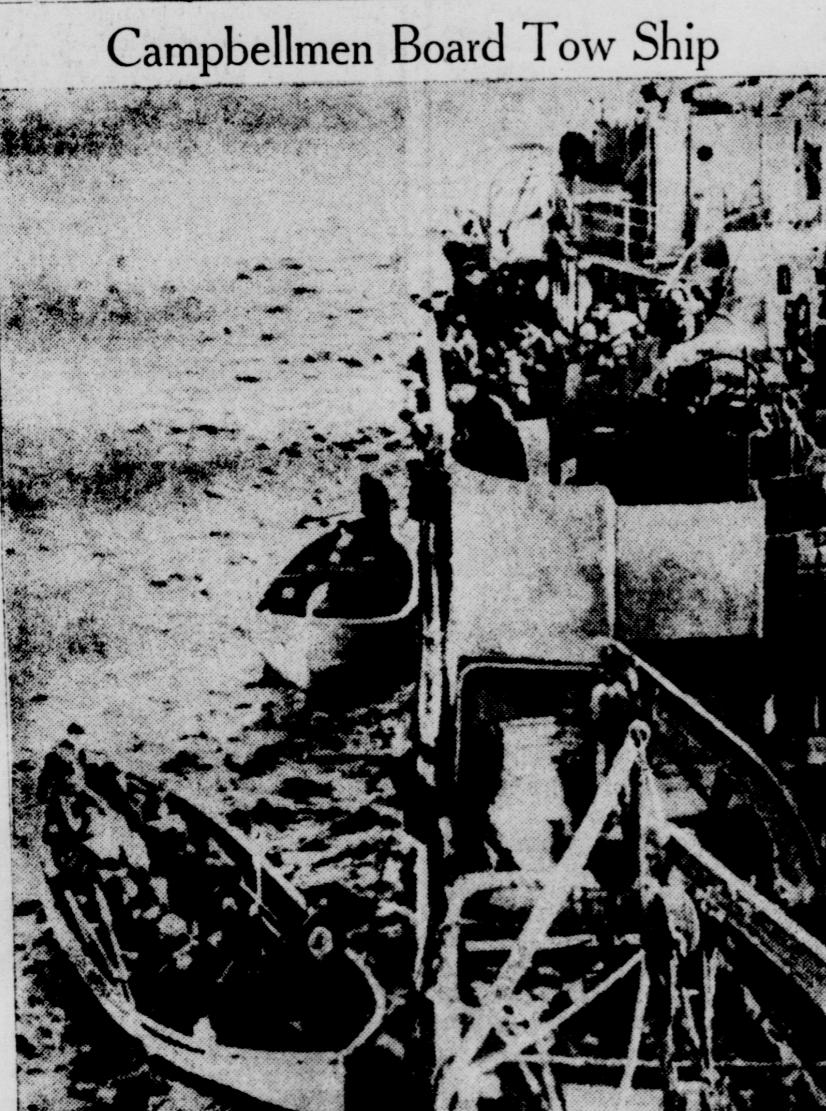

Capturing from 1,000 to 1,400 Italians, the Americans under command of Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., were reported dashing on toward Gabes, where they would throttle Marshal Rommel by blocking his supply lines.

Other dispatches said the American armored and motorized infantry teams were progressing in a three-pronged drive from Gafsa, with one of the other columns approaching Maknassy, northeast of El Guettar and only 52 miles from Mahares, on the coast north of Gabes.

The Algiers radio said American troops had taken the village of Fou Hamad, apparently the same as Bou Hamra, eight miles east of El Guettar.

The Italian high command said

Better Go Easy on Butter, You Get No More This Week

Point Values for Articles In New List To Be Announced

CHEESES NOT INVOLVED

Washington, March 22.—(P)—Go easy on the butter, boys and girls; it's all you get this week.

Retail sales were halted by the government last midnight and will not be resumed until rationing starts next Monday.

Sales of margarine, lard and other edible fats and oils which will go under point rationing along with meats and cheeses next week also were frozen for the same period.

Restaurants are not affected by the order and may continue to obtain butter and other foods from their wholesalers.

Mayonnaise and other salad dressings are not rationed and hence are not included in the sales freeze.

The Office of Price Administration said its sudden action was decided on because stocks now on hand are not large enough to support heavy public buying during the one week remaining before rationing starts.

"The retail sales freeze," said OPA, does not apply to any of the cheeses or meats involved in the new rationing plan and sales of these foods will continue as usual between now and March 29. Sales of canned fish and canned meat which were frozen February 18, will continue to be suspended until rationing starts."

The order was announced at 3 p. m. yesterday, but many city dwellers who sought to beat it by rushing down to the corner delicatessen found the butter department empty.

On Wednesday, OPA will announce the point values for the articles in the new ration list—meat, cheese, canned fish, fats and oils.

FLOOD DANGER PASSES

Pittsburgh, March 22.—(P)—Cold weather blocked any danger of a flood here, Weatherman W. S. Brotzman said, reporting that the Ohio river crested at 19 feet, is below flood stage.

RAF Continues Aerial Attacks

London, Mar. 22.—(P)—Adolf Hitler emerged yesterday from a 132-day silence which had given rise to rumors of his illness or death to tell the German people in a radio broadcast the crisis on the Russian front had been surmounted, assure them their losses in war dead were relatively small, and yet admit that many parts of Germany had become "war zones" as a result of incessant Allied bombing.

Veteran broadcast listeners, who have heard many of Hitler's speeches before, listened particularly intently to be sure it was the fuhrer speaking and said they were convinced it was his voice heard.

In one of the shortest and most subdued speeches he has ever delivered the fuhrer told a German war-dead Memorial Day gathering in Berlin, the fourth such assemblage since the war began, that 542,000 German soldiers had been killed since the start of the conflict.

Premier Josef Stalin has set the total of German dead on the eastern front at 4,000,000 and Germany's own admissions of losses in their entrapment and defeat at Stalingrad would appear to make Hitler's total figures for two years of war unduly low.

His closely guarded personal appearance before military officials, war wounded and a handful of Nazi dignitaries was not even revealed over the air until 50 minutes before he was scheduled to speak. Delivery of his speech (Turn to Page Seven)

FARMER SUICIDES

Hollidaysburg, March 22.—(P)—Coroner Chester C. Rothrock reported Roy T. McKinstry, 58, was found dead Saturday in a barn on a nearby farm, a .32 calibre revolver in his hand. Rothrock said the man had become despondent after selling his farm recently.

MacArthur's bombing attacks, growing more numerous northwest of Australia, centered on Cape Vandenberg, off Dutch New Guinea, where bombs were dropped around two cargo vessels and a destroyer in convoy, off Cape Namari, Dutch New Guinea, where three small merchant ships and some barges were bombed and strafed.

LEGISLATION ON WAR TIME BILLS READY

Governor May Be Given Powers to Modify or Suspend Laws Delaying State's Efforts

REDISTRICTING FIGHT

Harrisburg, March 22.—(P)—Legislation giving Governor Martin broad emergency powers to suspend or modify laws delaying Pennsylvania's war effort is likely to start moving through the legislature this week.

Lawmakers returning today to open the 12th week of the session disclosed the proposed legislation is embodied in two bills and probably will be presented to the legislature tomorrow.

The measures are the result of a conference held by the governor several weeks ago when both Republican and Democratic leaders approved plans to give him broad powers to stay laws requested by federal or military officials.

Another conference has been scheduled in Martin's office for tomorrow to discuss all phases of the bills before they are introduced.

Rep. Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, Republican floor leader, said the measures have been drawn up and are ready for introduction and quick action.

At the same time, Senator Sheldon B. Heyburn, Republican floor leader, predicted his congressional reapportionment proposal—reinstating the setup prior to 1942 with the exception that Philadelphia's seven districts will be cut to six—would be released from committee for senate action.

Pennsylvania's congressional districts were cut from 34 to 33 after the 1940 census and—after a bitter fight in both the 1941 regular and the 1942 special sessions—a compromise plan of 32 districts and one congressman-at-large was agreed upon.

BULLETINS

Washington, Mar. 22.—(P)—A 48 hour work week throughout the steel industry has been recommended by the War Production Board's steel labor advisory committee, which was formed last week.

New York, Mar. 22.—(P)—Spokesmen for the southern coal operators and the United Mine Workers have announced that they expect the imminent entrance of federal conciliators into contract negotiations involving bituminous fields.

He wants to avoid theorists as much as possible, he said, adding that he had in mind the creation of seven sub-committees of members who would be assigned to study specialized matters.

He mentioned housing, the development of commercial aviation and the reconversion of war plants to peace-time operations as some of the many subjects toward which inquiries would be directed.

Then, he said, there was the problem concerning demobilization of the armed forces—how fast men should be turned out of the army after the war was over and whether their discharges should be so paced as to permit industry to absorb them as they came out.

Washington, Mar. 22.—(P)—The National Labor Relations Board today certified the United Steel Workers of America, CIO, as collective bargaining representative for employees of the Oil Well Supply Company, Imperial Works, Oil City, Pa.

Pittsburgh, Mar. 22.—(P)—Detective Inspector Walter C. Monaghan said a curly-haired 12-year-old girl who had been setting ten fires in as many days had been turned over to juvenile court for a physical and mental examination.

RAF Continues Aerial Attacks

London, March 22.—(P)—British Whirlwind bombers damaged the important railway viaduct at Morlaix, in Brittany, scoring several hits and starting a fire as the RAF continued its attacks on German communications in France over the weekend, the air ministry announced yesterday.

Fourteen freight trains were attacked during the sorties, which were carried out Saturday night, and all the Allied planes returned,

it was announced.

Reports from various sources

continued to pour in, meanwhile,

on the damage done to Nazi-occua direct bomb hit had been scored on the sprawling stone building which houses Field Marshal Goering's air ministry.

Red Cross War Fund Drive Workers To Report Tonight

Considerable interest is being evidenced in the second report meeting of the Red Cross War Fund which will be held this evening in the YWCA activities building. Campaign headquarters reminded all workers this morning that the drive is not yet over, nor has the goal of $32,000 been reached. It is hoped that all workers will be present this evening and turn in final reports where possible. It is especially important that county workers be present with their reports, as many workers from outlying districts were not present last Thursday. With such a splendid report the first night, many workers are hoping that tonight will see the goal of $32,000 reached and interest in the results of tonight's totals is being eagerly looked forward to by the workers.

Strenuous Spring Trip Is Enjoyed by Hikers

Yesterday's first day of spring provided a cold but sunny Sunday afternoon hike for the 14 persons who joined the Allegheny Hiking Club's 108th journey. One newcomer was included.

The group walked from General Joseph Warren Park up the Liberty street hill turning right just before reaching the Parfitt residence, following over the telephone right-of-way to the top and then down the steep hill into Ventertown. Going up the Follett Run Road a short distance, the hikers turned right and north along the hill back of the Wetmore Farm, reaching a woods road and a path leading to the Boy Scout Camp at Jemfire. There they crossed the Jackson Run Road and climbed the hill to the old Owens Farm returning down the road from this farm through the State Hospital property back of their barns to North Warren and thence home to town by the highway, walking a total distance of 8 miles and having plenty of hill climbing, providing many excellent views of the valley.

The following took part in yesterday's trip:

Ruth Anderson, Royce Black,

Michael D'Angelo, Kathryn Garner, Elizabeth Gaghan, Marie Gaghan, Robert Jewell, R. W. MacKay, Mary Maniakas, George Monroe, William Parmalee, Catherine Reed, Alberta Ristau, and Jasper Shepard.

Ed L. Hinkley, well known Sheffield merchant, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home, 507 South Center street, about five o'clock Sunday afternoon, shortly after he had returned from a trip to Bradford.

He was born in Sheffield 64 years ago March 9 and had been in business there for the past 41 years, conducting a meat and grocery establishment in the same location, 13 Center street.

He was a member of the Methodist church and of the Knights of Pythias but his principal interests were his family and home and the greater part of his activity centered about these two interests.

Besides his wife, Grace Lawson Hinkley, he leaves three children: Mrs. Glen Belknap, Sheffield; Mrs. Hazen Carlson, 13 Jefferson avenue, Warren; Auxiliary Rosalie Sprague, at the WAAC training center at Dayton Beach, Fla. There are also five grandchildren: Grace Helene, Richard and Janis Carlson, Warren; Jack Carlson, overseas with the U. S. Marine Corps; Lee M. Belknap, stationed in Washington, D. C., with a naval unit. In addition, he leaves a sister, Mrs. John Baynes, Sheffield; two brothers, John of Sheffield, and Charles, of Ridgway; and a half-brother, Howard, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the family home, where friends may call at any time. The rites will be in charge of Rev. Ivan E. Rossell and will be followed by interment in Sheffield cemetery.

Warren is listed as a stop on the proposed route of a Pittsburgh moving firm which has applied to the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington, D. C., for permission to transport household goods by air, using glider and cargo planes. The W. J. Diller Transfer Company already has been granted a temporary permit for the service. The company seeks the right to organize an air hauling service to any point in the United States and Alaska, including 38 Pennsylvania cities. Proposed service in addition to Warren would be provided to the following nearby towns: Erie, Oil City, Meadville, Bradford and Mt. Jewett.

NEW LEGIONNAIRE

Members of Chief Complainant Post No. 135, American Legion, will hold an important meeting at the Post home this evening at 7:45. Commander John Meade calls for a good turn out of members as at tonight's meeting the Post will initiate the first member to join the local Post from the ranks of the current world war. The new member is S. M. McClure who recently received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Army. Among other items of business to come up for consideration at tonight's meeting are final plans for the current membership and plans for the annual Easter egg hunt which will probably be held in April.

J. H. Crickshank, of the North Warren Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

The body arrived in Warren Sunday night accompanied by a brother Ernest Dallas, and wife, of Lansing, Mich.

Mr. Dallas was born Dec. 18, 1892, in Milltown, Maine. Much of his early life was spent in Warren where he learned the machinist trade at what was known as the Jacobson Machine Tool Company. He has been away from Warren for almost 24 years.

MISS EVA JANE SMITH

Miss Eva Jane Smith, who has been confined to her bed for several days at her home, 508 Market street, passed away there about 9:50 a. m. today, leaving a brother, Jay, of the same address, as her only immediate survivor.

Removal has been made to the Lutz Funeral Home, where friends may call and from where services will be held at 3:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Harold C. Warren, First Presbyterian minister, will officiate and interment will be made in the family plot in Oakland cemetery. Friends are asked to kindly omit flowers.

The following concerning Miss Smith has been prepared for the Times-Mirror:

Eva Jane Smith was born in Tidouette and came to Warren as a child with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Smith. She received her degree of Mus. B. from Oberlin College and studied piano in Berlin and art in Paris. She was very active in the suffrage movement, gave her services to four state campaigns and was a captain in the Woman's Suffrage Party in New York.

Her interest in disseminating constructive literature was most unusual. She sent an enormous amount of it gratis (some of which she wrote herself) to different parts of the world—many of the recipients being shut-ins and inmates of homes and hospitals. A distinguished author and publisher called this a beautiful ministry.

APPLICATIONS ARE PLENTY

Warren county motorists, who were expected to go into a slump in the filing of applications for auto licenses for 1943, are sending in applications in a manner almost normal. The cut in price to $10 for any passenger car has evidently had something to do with the rush for licenses as the gasoline and tire situation is not conducive to driving.

IMPOSTER SOUGHT

Borough and state police have been asked to be on the lookout for a man identified as John D. Ross, about 26 years of age, six feet three inches tall and weighing about 175 pounds, who is alleged to be going from town to town in the section posing as a member of the U. S. Army Engineers' Corps claiming to be looking for deserters.

IMPORTANCE OF ADVERTISING

Newspaper advertising is playing a part in the nation's war effort second in importance only to the service being rendered by the newspapers in keeping a free people informed, through the news and editorial columns, of day-to-day developments. People seem to be learning rapidly—those who had forgotten it—that only through the still free press of America can they get the facts about the war and of developments on the home front.

In the economic life of the people the American press is playing a wartime role that would be impossible in nations like Germany, Italy or Russia, where the press as well as the radio is under the thumbs of the rulers. Scarcity of many products and rationing have made the advertisements an even more important part of American life than in the past.

Predictions made by some of the collectivist boys—who abhor the very idea of advertising—that advertising volume was headed for a serious (they hoped fatal) slump during the war have been proved as erroneous as all their other theories. Many mercantile, manufacturing and service firms are continuing to advertise for the same reason they advertised in the past—they find it pays—and people have discovered they can save time and money under present conditions of scarcity, just as they did in the past, by consulting the advertisements.

START SAVING

There is longer any way of loading the tax bill "onto the other fellow." It is now in the lap of every family in the land. Taxes come ahead of all family bills. The American family will have to learn to economize as never before.

A single person with an income of $100 a month will pay the Federal government approximately $175 in 1943, and this does not include any state income tax, property tax or excise taxes. A single person earning $15 a week, with no dependents, will pay some $56 Federal taxes, not counting other taxes.

We will have to go without a lot of things hereafter to accumulate tax money. As we scrimp to meet our tax obligations, we will take increasing interest in seeing that city, county, state and Federal governments also economize; that frills and furbelows in government are eliminated for the duration, and for a long period thereafter.

Congress could ease the situation for the taxpayer by passage of the Rumml, pay-as-you-go tax collection plan.

EIGHTH ARMY ON THE MOVE

Britain's prime minister gave out the official news many had been anxiously awaiting and injected Churchillian drama into the Tunisian crisis last evening with his impressively measured announcement: "I have just received a message from General Montgomery that the Eighth Army is on the move, and he is satisfied with the progress." Thus we have what appears to be confirmation that the Allied offensive to oust the Axis from Africa actually has begun.

It takes the like of a Churchill to handle big news with such telling effect—and it takes a Montgomery to send such a message of repressed assurance.

The third visit of the Red Cross Blood Bank mobile unit from Buffalo will be made to Warren tomorrow when 160 new volunteers will present themselves at the Municipal Building between the hours of two and seven to donate a pint of blood each. Warren is making an enviable reputation for supporting this important project in the war effort and all concerned have reasons to feel elated over the interest shown.

Galatians 5:1.
The Apostle Paul names liberty as among our noblest blessings. Liberty has never seemed so noble or precious as now when it is vigorously threatened. There are those who trace the causes of the current world distress to our misuse and mishandling of it. This has always been the freest country in the world, but if freedom have no consecration, manners or mandates in a great religion, it ceases as a blessing and becomes a curse. It has left the highway and headed for the ditch. We can see now how our people went on gambling, drinking, flirting at night halls and clubs. Are we not free to "Go," "Do," as we please? The simple virtues which alone can keep our civilization from cracking up were dragged in the muck of a licentious age.

It has taken a catastrophe, the biggest in all history, to stop our boasted freedoms. With disaster thrust at us from across the seas, we appraise our folly and call on God to save us lest in the titanic struggle we be humbled and beaten to our knees by the ferocious foes of all good freedom and of Christ's religion.

The Apostle Paul speaks across the centuries to us now: "Stand fast in the liberty wherewith Christ has made you free."

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Some weeks ago I gave the lumber industry critics their innings. One of the chief points they raised was: "Why hasn't the recommended Forest Products Service (a sort of wartime finance corporation for small business sawmills) been approved by the President?" The President has answered. Into the discard went the FPS

First Of Two Articles

plan, with the White House announcement that "this and similar plans were shelved in an effort to attain the same result more simply and economically."

"I am in agreement," said the President in a letter to WPB Director Donald Nelson, "that unusual action is needed to maintain the output of forest products at a high level as an essential aid in prosecution of the war."

"The WPB," he went on, "has sole legal responsibility for production, and of course must maintain that position." He then said he could assure the WPB the fullest cooperation of the U. S. Forest Service.

ACCORDING to the lumber industry, as represented by the American Forest Products Industries, Inc., and the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, all that's swell, except that the WPB is demanding the utmost in production, calling for 120,000,000 tons of forest products. And that the War Manpower Commission and Selective Service have made no effort to restore the 80,000 men who have been drafted from or allowed to desert the lumber industry for higher salaried war jobs. Lumber workers now are "frozen"—but, they say, too late.

According to lumbermen with representatives here, the U. S. Forest Service seeks to compel forest and farm woodland owners to adopt "sustained yield" forestry practices. The lumbermen claim that thousands of them already have placed millions of acres under sustained-yield management, but that to try to institute a wholesale enforcement program of this type now would be one more splinter to all-out war production. For example, they say, it would take from 15 to 20 per cent more manpower to maintain such a program, without increasing the present necessary wartime yields.

ON THE other hand, they admit that wartime demands are forcing some overcutting. Shortage of manpower, tires, trucks and gasoline (for hauling) necessitates this, but in the meantime, they insist, less accessible forest areas are being correspondingly undercut.

The lumbermen argue that even if some small sections have been completely cut out, there are enough seed trees nearby to permit "nature to reforest the land as she has done so many times in the past to the consternation of the 'prophets' who said that she wouldn't."

EMPLOYMENT SHOWS DECREASE

Industrial employment in Pennsylvania decreased about 3.5 per cent in January as compared with December, 1942. All groups reported decreases except nonferrous metals, transportation equipment, chemical and allied products, and bituminous coal mining, all of which reported slight increases.

Payrolls declined 2.8 per cent but showed an increase of 14.4 per cent over January, 1942.

Total hours worked also decreased 4.0 per cent.

Averages for January were:

weekly earnings $35.94; hourly earnings $8.872 and hours worked 41.24, each of these averages being higher than the 1942 averages.

Most of the wholesale and retail groups reported declines in employment, payrolls and hours, no doubt due to inability to secure sufficient help, which condition was caused by the war's effect on consumer business.

THANKS for all the things you do every day that will help bring me and the rest of the boys home sooner... When I see men out here giving their all for Victory, it's easy for me to understand why it's so important for the folks back home to sacrifice and do without. I hear them go off with an almighty bang every day. Thanks for saving food... I'm eating some of it now. Thanks for saving Gas at home... God knows we need the tanks and guns and planes that are produced with Gas. Honest, Mom, I think they should give medals to women like you who are fighting the good fight for freedom back on the home front!"

O'Connors Nip Blomquist Furnitures In Thriller At "Y"

Irish Lag First Period But Set Back Bloms First Tilt In Nineteen

The proverbial luck of the Irish held out Saturday night in one of the most exciting games seen this year, when the Sheffields O'Connors stuck to the ancient adage of their South Bend cousins and dropped the mighty Blomquists 34-28 before a capacity crowd on the "Y" sym.

Taking the low road all through the first stanza, the indomitable O'Connors suffered a minor setback in the matter of points as the Furnitures behind the "out of this world" shots of Louis Check rang the bell for 10 points to the Irish 6 with Farnsworth and McAvoy stringing for the winners. Regardless of the outlook in this period for the O'Connors, something was lacking in the Blomquist contour and finally it began to look like their first defeat in 19 starts.

Nick Otto came into the fray at the start of the second period along with the famous Korchak, of reputable fame throughout the county—then it happened—these two, along with Fitch's board work started the ball rolling and wouldn't let up as they raked, passed and shot their way into 8 points while stopping the Bloms at a lonely two pointers by Johnny Pick.

From there on it was O'Connors all the way and even though the Blomquists were always so close as to throw the crowd into a wild streak when either side scored, it was no-go from the Furnitures angle and they missed enough shots to down the Spas in those last two periods at 15-10 and 5-6.

The Bloms pulled into a three-point deficit in the late third session when Johnny Pick and Jimmy Urbanski dropped successive counters and tripled the score at 25-22 for a couple of minutes. But Nick Otto faded and turned basket-bound with seemingly none to stop him and strung up a two-pointer and was fouled in the act, which ended all Blom's hopes of recovering, and they lost their first one in nineteen contests at 34-28.

The first game showed the Struthers-Wells needing every ounce and inch of "Big Jim" Eaton and each rhythmical move of the speedy Dick Finley, both of the high school varsity for next year as they scored 38 points between them and helped magnificently to lead their team into a 47-25 win over the have-slipped Rock Cleaners.

From the time Big Jim planted himself in pivot position until the final gun, the Rocks had as much chance of copping as a snowball in what Sherman said was war, as he stood a bulkward in both defense and offense. He passed, tipped and pivoted to his next year's teammate and set up enough points in the first two sessions to nearly take care of all the Rock's counters.

Joe Scalise was the head-man for the Rocks and he pushed in a few one-handers along with Tink Wolfe's very few to keep the Cleaners in there pitching—hay—and the score at half-time stood 22-13 favor of the local E's.

The entire Struthers-Wells outfit functioned like a well-oiled machine of the type that gained them their coveted flag, and they went all-out in the last periods, overrunning the Rocks at 25-12 to finish off the scoring at 47-25.

Kinnear, with Ruth Ritchie's 162-455 and Mary Check's 181-425 combined to give them a split, losing total pins by one. Hand's 173-458 and Berdine's 179-470 led the Brown's Boots. La Voga and Printz Co. split even as Thomas' 176-486 led the La Voga with Leuthold also turning in a 465. Printz with 166-466 led the clothiers.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON

New York, March 22.—(P)—For the first time since they've been in the National Hockey League, the New York Rangers finished a dead

last this season . . . They were so weak they busted the "goals against" record by a country mile and nearly set a record for a losing streak . . . But when the returns were in the club made $1100 more than last year—not including $10,000 or so receipts from their Red Cross game . . . At that rate, the Athletics ought to pay off the mortgage this summer . . . Cleveland is going for indoor track in a big way. The K. of C. is importing all 300 pounds of Jack Lavelle as starter for Saturday's meet . . . Maybe this nortern spring training ain't so hot, but as soon as the umps start calling 'em the fans will say they've seen the first robbin'.

LIGHT EXERCISE—Story making the rounds of the Iowa Pre-Flight School (we don't guarantee it's true, but it illustrates something) is that a cadet was galloping around the track one day when he stumbled and cracked his head against the rail . . . As he lay there, waiting for the first aid squad to pick him up, another cadet ran past him shouting, "Well, don't just lie there. Do some pushups or something."

MONDAY MATINEE—Tommy Byrne, the southpaw from Newark who has inherited Lefty Gomez's No. 11 uniform on the Yankees, resembles El Gordo in one way—he'd rather hit than pitch . . . The difference is that Tommy really can hit. He batted .563 in his last year at Wake Forest College . . . Leo Diegel has raised more than $600 for the Red Cross at the El Rio Golf Club in Tucson, Ariz., this winter

by plastering two-bit fines on golfers who hit into traps and by rigging up gold bets in which all the dough involved went to the Red Cross . . . Earl Blue, president of the Reds' Sally League farm at Columbia, S. C., has been taken into the Cincinnati front office to make up for the loss of Frank Lane and Fred Fleig to the armed forces . . . When the Jersey Giants pitch camp a block away from their big brothers in Lakewood, N. J., next week, their hotel will be named Hartnett Hall.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR—Nixson Denton, Cincinnati Times-Star:

The American League Red Stock, oddly enough, has a red, white and blue cover. Red for inflamed muscles, white for bandages and blue for noses."

MASTER MIND—Jimmy Conzelman, who knows the answers to most football coaching problems, admits this one has him stumped.

The other day he received a letter from an inmate of a state institutional. It stated: "I heard you say a man can do anything with material. You're my material. Get me out of here and find me a job driving a truck."

DICK CHECK WINS TITLE SECOND TIME

Hazleton and Lower Merion Clash Tomorrow Night In All-Important Final Tilt

By HENRY E. LITTLEHALES

The big question in Pennsylvania scholastic basketball circles today as four playoff survivors look ahead to regional finals Tuesday is—Can Hazleton stop Lower Merion's drive for a third straight state championship?

The Philadelphia suburbanites who sport an almost unbelievable record of 54 victories in 55 games—They dropped a decision to Lancaster more than a year ago—rolled on almost mechanically Saturday in eliminating Milton's strong contenders, 47 to 26. They can enter the state finals for the seventh time since 1931 if they get past Hazleton, 42-28 conqueror of Berwick, in the eastern regional finale Tuesday at the Penn Palace in Philadelphia.

It will be their first duel since 1940, when Lower Merion prevailed in two extra periods only to bow later to Lebanon's state champs.

Hazleton has never beaten Lower Merion—but has never lost in the regional or state finals. The Ardmore aggregation and the boys from the hard coal region share two enviable records—they are the only schools to win the state crown three times and also two years in succession.

Hazleton copped the honors in 1928, 1929 and 1938, with Lower Merion triumphing in 1933, 1941 and 1942.

While these two classy clubs are fighting it out for eastern supremacy, the western championship will be determined at Pitt Stadium as undefeated Scott of North Braddock meets Farrell's strong contenders.

With a perfect record in the formidable WPIAL field and a 47-27 deviation over Pittsburgh Westinghouse in a regional semi-final Saturday, Scott is regarded generally as a slight favorite. Farrell, however, has been picking up momentum in the playoffs and has sidetracked Sharon, Bradford and Johnstown, the latter by a big 51-28 margin Saturday.

Scott is hoping to enter the finals for the second time in PIAA annals—the North Braddock boys took the title in 1931 by beating Lower Merion, 28-15. Farrell has never been strong enough to cop regional laurels.

With Hazleton and Lower Merion as the only three-time state champs, Homestead, Pittsburgh South and Nanticoke have taken the honors on two occasions.

SPORT SHORTS

Philadelphia, March 22.—(P)—

The Philadelphia Phillies now are officially the property of William D. Cox, New York Millionaire, following formal transfer of 4,950 shares of club stock to him and his syndicate. National League President Ford Frick said there are now no obligations outstanding against the Phillips.

Philadelphia, March 22.—(P)—Joey Burns, leading hitter and most valuable player in the Main Line (semi-pro) League last season, has been signed by the Boston Braves and will report at their training camp in Wallingford, Conn. He is an infielder and catcher. He became a free agent from Oklahoma City when the Texas League disbanded.

Child Victim Of Accident At Bear Lake

Accidental discharge of a shotgun by an older brother was loading preparatory to hunting rats which had been raiding the henhouse, cost the life of Lyle Lawrence Crosby, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Crosby, of Bear Lake. The boy died at Corry Hospital at 9:30 p. m. Friday, death being attributed to loss of blood and shock.

Lyle, according to information obtained following the distressing tragedy, had noticed rats near the chicken house and called to his brother, Gerald, 19, to get the shotgun. The older brother was loading the weapon, while Lyle and a younger brother, Lee, 3, sat nearby on the floor. Just what happened is not clear, but the gun was discharged immediately after Gerald inserted a shell, the full charge striking the five-year-old brother in the knee of the left leg.

The accident occurred early Friday afternoon and the boy, his leg terribly mangled by the charge, was rushed to Corry Hospital. An operation was performed during the afternoon, but the youngster failed to rally, passing away at 9:30 o'clock that night. The loss of blood and shock combined to cause death.

Deputy Coroner R. Lawrence Davison of Corry joined Coroner Ed Lowrey of Warren in an investigation into the accident. Deputy Davison went to Clymer Saturday in connection with the inquiry.

Pleads Guilty To Annoying Young Women

Quick thinking and rare courage on the part of a woman motorist who resides on the South Side made possible the apprehension of a citizen of that district Friday evening who was later arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct for having annoyed two girls.

The young women reported to the police that they were walking across the Hickory street bridge when they noticed a man trailing them. Going east on Crescent Park they became frightened and started to run, but the man speeded up in an effort to catch them. They ran up the river road when an automobile approached which evidently caused the man to become suspicious and he disappeared, but not before the occupant of the car identified him. She hurried to the police station and reported the incident. Lieut. Gordon Mumford and Patrolman Gaghan hastened to the scene. One was stationed at the home of the man and the other started patrolling the section. It was not long until the suspect appeared and, after identification by the woman motorist, was taken to the police station, where he was later identified by the young women, after which, police say, he made a statement admitting that he was guilty of the charge.

He was arraigned in police court Saturday and sentenced to thirty days in jail. In the meantime it is expected he will undergo an examination to determine his mental condition. Police state that the man admits being guilty of similar offenses in the past few months.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

By the Associated Press

Hershey, Pa., March 22.—Owner Bill Cox of the Philadelphia Phillies was in New York today to confer with President Ed Barrow of the Yankees regarding the recent sale of First Baseman Nick Ettell for Ed Levy, Al Gettell and $10,000 in cash.

Neither player acquired by the Phillies has reported. The Phils have carried their case to Commissioner K. M. Landis but Cox said he hoped to straighten out the situation without action on Landis' part.

Wilmington, Del.—First arrivals at the Philadelphia Athletic training camp, which opens today, were Pitchers Russ Christopher, Jesse Flores and Roger Wolff and Catcher Earl Brucker. They beat Mr. and Mrs. Connie Mack by several hours.

Muncie, Ind.—Babot Phelps' hint that he might stay out of baseball for the duration caused little concern among the officials of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Al Lopez is expected to take over the No. 1 catching role with Bill Baker and Spud Davis in reserve.
